About the Camp

Goalkeepers- Boys & Girls aged 11-17 years
Monday 26th- Wednesday 28th December 2011
Grande Sports World, Casa Grande, Arizona
3 day/2 night Camp: $215.00

The camp is designed for goalkeepers from the age of 11 to 17 years. It will teach the techniques and skills required to be a top goalkeeper, but also coach the goalkeeper to achieve their potential, giving them the confidence to play their position and ultimately improve match day performance.

Topics covered will include; Handling, Footwork, Diving, Shot-stopping, Crossing, Dealing with the back-pass, distribution, and 1v1's.

We will also have classroom time with the goalkeepers to create their own specific pre-match warm up routine, create off-the-field fitness and plyo-metric programs, to look at Healthy lifestyle foods & drinks (nutrition), analyze game tape, and take a look at what it takes to be recruited by top colleges.

Our attractive package includes 3 days tuition and 2 nights in Courtyard accommodations (free wireless internet), Dinner on December 26th, Breakfast, Lunch and Dinner on December 27th, and Breakfast on December 28th. Training will be conducted on professional grade soccer fields with set-up and multiple portable goals to enhance our experience.

Grande Sports World

12 of the MLS teams train and/or play games at the facility, along with NASL's Montreal Impact and FC Edmonton, the Canadian Olympic team, Rwanda U17 and New Zealand U17 World Cup teams along with two other New Zealand teams. They have eight professional grade fields and a ninth under construction, plus a 58,000 square foot training facility including 16 classrooms, hot and cold plunge pools and lockers for 284 players which is a state of the art facility unlike any other facility in soccer. Their adjacent hotel (Francisco Grande Hotel & Golf Resort) is within steps of the fields and training facility with restaurant facilities for up to 400 people.

Camp Director

Ryszard Gorski

Ryszard Gorski, was born in Edinburgh, Scotland, to Polish parents. He played soccer from an early age and it was his passion for the sport that took him to the USA. He recently took up his position as Director of Goalkeeping at Sereno Soccer Club.

Gorski spent three years as assistant coach of the men's soccer team at Fordham University. He also served as goalkeeper coach for the Fordham Women's soccer team. Prior to his time with the Rams, Gorski served as an assistant coach at Saint Leo University in Saint Leo, Florida, from 2006-2008. In addition to his duties at Saint Leo, he was the Director of Goalkeeping for the Central Pasco United Spartans in Land O' Lakes,

Prior to his coaching career, Gorski, was the starting goalkeeper for Long Island University- Brooklyn, from 2002-05. As a junior, he was ranked 13th in the nation with a 0.64 goals against average and broke the school record for not conceding a goal in 621 minutes of play. He was selected First Team All-Northeast Conference as a senior, and was also an All-New York Regional All-American. Gorski's play also earned the Blackbirds a Northeast Conference Championship and the school's first NCAA Tournament appearance in almost 20 years. He finished his career with 196 saves, a 0.87 goals against average, an .802 save percentage, and 22 shutouts in 52 career games. Following college, Gorski signed with Huntly FC of the Highland Football League in Scotland. He played a season there before returning stateside.

Gorski represented Great Britain at the 2009 World University Games in Belgrade, Serbia. It was his second appearance at the World University Games, having played in 2005 in Izmir, Turkey. He has also played in the United Soccer Leagues- Player Development League with various clubs over the last eight years and played for Dundee FC of the Scottish Premier League as a youth player.

Gorski holds a Business Management Degree from Long Island University and a Master's Degree in Business Administration from Saint Leo University. He holds a USSF "D" coaching license, a NSCAA National Goalkeeping License, a NSCAA Advanced Regional Diploma, and various coaching certifications with the Scottish Football Association.
